

Schools closed in March.

I have been at home every day.

Teachers have been giving me work to do at home.
I have also been doing other learning.
What things have you been learning?

You can write or draw them here.

The government has said we will go back to school in August.

